SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1872. THE Cincinnati Enquirer is wicked enough to say: "Mr. Greeley is suffering from brain disorder. Gen. Grant never

Hon, James White, of Hawkins, Senator from the Second District, and Senstor Mc-Call, of Obion, are both favorably mertioned as candidates for the Speakership of the Senate.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer thinks "Mr. Froude made a mistake in coming to this country to discuss such a quest on, free of prejudice and passion, as the British rule over Ireland." So he did; but "fools rush served until elected a member of the House in where angels fear to tread."

THE question of discontinuing the publication of the daily edition of the Louisville Commercial, the Republican organ in Kentucky, was at one time contemplated, but a new stock company has been organised and the paper will be continued.

THE fellow who presented Grant with a bull-pap was a firm believer in "the eternal fitness of things." Bull-pups and the Presidency of a republic seem now to be corejust presented a couple of them to President tions coming up for action. He, as a mem-Thiers.

THE Chattanooga Times urges Hon. E. A. James for Speaker of the Senate, on the ground that this responsible office "should be filled by a live, progressive man, a good parliamentarian, and one who is thoroughly acquainted with the necessities of the

THERE are propositions before the Constitutional Convention in Pennsylvania to exetend the time of the Governor, which is already three years; to extend the terms of the members of the Legislature; to make attendance at the public schools compulsory, and to authorize juries to render verdies in case of the agreement of two-thirds of their number.

Noticing the pardon of Paymaster General Hodge, the New York Tribune calls attention to the fact that "when, during the campaign, a report gained circulation that he was to be pardoned, it was indignantly denied by the Administration press." The election is over and Grant can take care of and was soon promoted to the Lieutenancy his friends now with impunity, as he sup. of his company. After the exchange of Six months' imprisonment has been awarded at Manchester, England, Quarter Sessions to a postal telegraph clerk who had intercepted and turned to his private advantage the contents of a betting message passing through his hands. In this country private messages entrusted to telegraphers to be sent over the wires, are not secure from the prying eyes of such corrupt Con grossmen as Ben. Butler.

THE Mempihs Avalanche and the Nashville Banner upon the one side and the Louisville Courier-Journal on the other are having a lively spat about the political nituation in Tennessee. The former having freely availed themselves of the assistance of the Cincinnati Commercial in the late canvass now regard the Courier-Journal as an impertment outsider in expressing its views upon the Tennessee situation.

THE Chattanooga Herald of the 27th

"The Nashville Banner, the Memphis Argionche and the Knoxville Press and Herald are in a sad strait. They want to join the Republican party, but, like the young man the first time he went 'a courtthey are too bashful to speak out. Each of them thinks Grant may yet prove himself equal to the emergency and become a great man. No doubt of it."

We do not believe that the Press and Herald will ever advocate the principles, p lies and practices of the Grant Adminis-

THE Washington Republican states that the Treasury Department will probably press upon Congress the abolision of the moleties of Government officers in the fines, penalties and forfeitures arising from the de_ tection of consummsted and attempted frauds upon the custom-houses. The molety system is believed to have a demoralizing effect upon the service, and to be detrimental to the discovery of frauds rather than helpful to such discoveries. The moiety system was abolished in the internal revenue service for such reason at the last

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says:

Of course the excuse is that Hodge is to be made a witness for the Government against somebody else. Now, the administration | county. could punish nobody who would furnish half so edifying an example as Hodge. But then he has powerful friends, and with such aid thieves have no difficulty in getting off."

While the President is thus ready to liberate a defaulter to the Government to a large amount, the poor Southerners sent to the Albany penitentiary by courts "creanised to convict," are left to languish in prison. The convictions in nine-tenths of these cases are a disgrace to the jurisprudence of the country and a libel to justice.

THE PRESIDENT'S SOUTHERN POLICY.

We find the following in a Washington telegram to the Courier-Journal under date

The President in a recent interview exhiblied some uneasiness at the idea of a change of policy in respect to the South, ing to place Tennesses among the foremost and is fearful of confessing that his policy States of the Union. He has never before has been harsh. He stated that he could not make a general jail delivery of Ku-Klux prisoners, but would consider each case on its merits. He intimated that, if the neigh- and claims that in that capacity he was enbors of a prisoner petitioned for his release, it might be granted.

The Heraid in speaking of the draft of the message which was to be submitted to the cabinet on the 26th, says :

The document embraces many important recommendations, but apparently it does not include the full measure of justice to the South that has been so often boasted of as late canvass Mr. Richards was nominated for hooming during the recent campaign. We are told that he has yielded this year, as he did last, to the advice of experienced politicians and changed the tenor of the this fact, he received quite a number of message so far as it relates to that part of the Democratic votes as a compliment to his country.
